Charlotte, NC... (August 10, 2011) — ZINK. AMERICAN KITCHEN, with its open kitchen, New American cuisine and hip, friendly patio is now offering vegetarians a great reason to dine out on Monday nights. Zink’s “Meatless Mondays” features a special three-course dinner menu for just $20.00 per person. Guests can also enjoy the menu a la carte.

“Each week I take pride in selecting only the very best and freshest local produce and ingredients to create our unique vegetarian dishes.” said Tom Dyrness, Zink’s Chef du Cuisine. “It’s exciting to introduce our guests to these new flavorful dishes that are meatless, but still feature that signature Zink twist to the recipe.”

Dyrness says that even guests who are not vegetarians will enjoy the menu. “Summer is the perfect time of year to enjoy some lighter fare, and the dishes featured on our Meatless Mondays are an excellent value.”

A typical “Meatless Monday” menu by Chef Tom might include: Parmesan-Panko Crusted Artichoke with garlic tuile and lemon puree; Sweet Pepper Stuffed Graffiti Eggplant with red quinoa risotto; and, for dessert, Brown Sugar & Grand Marnier with Roasted Pineapple Crepes, candied ginger, crème Chantilly.
